STATE OF THE PARISH

MEETING MINUTES

St. John's Episcopal Church Annual Meeting

January 21, 2018

The Parish Annual Meeting was led by The Reverend James P. Bartz. The minutes that follow include motions and notable comments from those in attendance. The financials and other printed materials in their entirety may be requested from the church office. The Reverend James P. Bartz called the meeting to order at 9:00am.

Invocation

Review of Minutes of 2017 Parish Meeting – Luetta Keegan. Jimmy made a motion that the 2016 Annual Meeting Minutes not be read. Debby Hopkins 2nd.

Elections

 – Kathy Stuck

Kathy led the process for electing individuals presented on the Annual Meeting Ballot to serve on positions for the Vestry, Endowment Committee and Diocesan Convention.

- Vestry: Dan Land motioned to elect JR Dalby, Chad Driewer and Daryl Peightal. Beverly Shore 2nd.
- Endowment Committee: Chip Marvin motioned to elect John Goettler and Tricia Overdyke. Dan Land 2nd.
- Diocesan Convention: Rob Woodson made a motion to elect Carole Baker, Dan Land, Bruce Hawtin and Lynne Matthews as delegates, with JR Dalby and Kris Gridley as alternates. David Hopkins 2nd.

Jimmy thanked Liz Masek, Keith Mader and Cody Mueller for their service on the vestry.

Performance on 2017 Mission Plan – Chip Marvin
Treasurer Chip Marvin gave a highlighted overview of the 2017 financials which included income in excess of $54k and expense reduction of 1.9%. He also touched on outreach efforts (pass through) that were not included in the budget. He thanked Robyn Reed the increased detail in the financial reporting that now involves an annual audit. He went on to explain that the Mission Plan is a going-forward budget that the Vestry reviews each month as part of its meeting, with oversight from the Finance Committee.

Presentation of 2018 Mission Plan – Chip Marvin
Chip touched on the 2018 budgeted pledges amount which increased over 2017; he also remarked that the projection for Browse 'n Buy remained the same as that for 2017, as growth for that outreach nears capacity. The increase in salaries/benefits reflects the continued expansion of SJC needs; as well, the deficit in maintenance reflects the need to create a nest egg for various maintenance projects required on campus.

John Goettler asked about transfer of funds from Endowment. David Hopkins asked about funding for capital projects.

Endowment

 – Dan Land

Dan said that 2017 was an outstanding year, reflected in a 16% increase in the corpus. The majority of distributions assisted in purchasing the condo that is used to house visiting clergy. Bill Ramsay asked for clarification on the condo loan. Jimmy explained that the purchase price was $630k and the loan $500k.

Comments – The Reverend Jimmy Bartz Jimmy directed discussion to the 2017 budget numbers and the belief that “money follows mission”, reflected in the mission work accomplished outside the budget. SJC is listening and responding to the needs of the community. He added that St. John's Church (SJC) is looking at future growth that will positively impact the campus and outreach organizations serving the community.

Open Discussion

Sally Johnson said she is very proud to be a member of SJC and gave thanks to Jimmy for the good work being done. Bruce Hawtin added that SJC has a lot to do and accomplish, but it's encouraging to see growth when numbers in the rest of the country are down. Jimmy responded that churches like SJC probably need to add a congregation to the one it already has, something “non-traditional” that resonates with the work already being done. That probably means adding another kind of service – likely in Hansen Hall. It would not take away from what SJC has done and is doing; it would just add to what we have.

David Hopkins asked if SJC tracks the median age of church attendance. Jimmy said there is no formal process but the staff observes. As well, he said that SJC is growing but that there is also not much room to accommodate that growth. A 3rd service may be needed in the summer.

Ann Thayer asked about the size of SJC membership. In terms of average Sunday attendance, Jimmy estimates a little bit “north” of 200 per service, with Christmas tipping the scale in excess of 1,000.

Adjournment

Mike Keegan made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Bruce Hawtin 2nd.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:40am.

VESTRY NOMINATIONS

The following individuals have been chosen as candidates for the new vestry class of 2019. The current vestry recommends this slate of candidates to the parish.

JOHN MILLAR

John Millar and his wife, Ann, were frequent visitors to the Jackson area for over 15 years, and relocated in 2016 from Houston. John spent 30 years in the chemicals industry, and his training in chemistry and business fueled his work as a manager in research, technology, planning and budgeting for a large company. He enjoys many outdoor activities, including resort, backcountry and cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, hiking, fishing, and basketball. He loves music, especially classical, opera and blues and is an amateur guitarist. Since joining St. John's, he's participated in many church activities, including the Finance Committee, Habitat for Humanity builds, and St. John's Outdoors. He believes our church does great work and will try to contribute to its efforts in any way possible. He believes some of his experience may be useful for the Dreaming project and is especially interested in outreach to youth in and around Jackson.

KAREN SMITH

Karen Smith and her husband, Steven and son, Greyson moved to Jackson in 2012 from Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Prior to that time, she spent every vacation possible in this spectacular valley, and was married at The Chapel of the Transfiguration by the Rev. Ken Asel. After becoming a local, the family attended St. John's regularly because of the wonderful children's chapel every Sunday. She believes that Margaret and Catherine taught Greyson the fundamentals of spreading love through Christianity, and that was all it took for the family to know that St. John's was their church home. Karen believes that community service is a big part of herself, with ten years identifying social service needs in her Florida community and finding solutions to fit those needs. Her experience with the Junior League gave her a priceless skill set that led to her career with HealthStar Communications. A lifer for the firm, she has spent over 20 years selling medical education and meeting logistics services to the pharmaceutical industry. Karen works remotely now, which allows her to balance career, family and commitments to St. John's and the community. Karen currently serves on the Education Committee and volunteers on Sundays during coffee hour.

RECTOR'S REPORT

The Rev. Jimmy Bartz

Dear Church,

I was chatting with Jan Henderson, our former Senior Warden, over the Christmas holidays updating her on all that's been going on at St. John's over the course of the last few months. I think I said something to the effect of "we're moving 100 miles per hour, and I would prefer it if we were just moving 85!" We've had a busy year. We've experienced growth and success and some measured failure, as well. Those are signs of a healthy church. My hope and expectation is that 2019 will hold some of the same.

Season of Light

We began 2018 with our "Season of Light Campaign" collecting financial resource, so that those unable to pay their light and heat bills would receive some loving relief from the generosity of folks at our church. Just the idea of the campaign is demonstrative of a church that serves the community—one that is outwardly focused upon making a love-spreading difference in the community in which we are planted. That Season of Light campaign has continued throughout the year helping dozens of families in our valley who have run across financial hardship. Thank you!

Lent

During the Season of Lent, we focused upon building stronger relationships among our church family using the old Russian folktale "Stone Soup" as our vehicle and focusing upon table fellowship. More than 200 members in our congregation participated in both weekly Wednesday evening dinners and small group dinners that were hosted in the homes of members of our church community. Some of those groups have continued to meet and strengthen their relationship one to another. Relationship—with God and with one another—is the heart of what we do here at St. John's. Way to go, Church!

Dreaming and Strategic Process

As spring turned to summer, we launched our summer "Dream Big Dreams" campaign. Each of us was given a pillowcase, meant to be used as a tool to enable us to dream big dreams for the present-future of St. John's. We dreamed individually. Many of you contributed dreams via our BigDreams@stjohnsjackson.org email. We dreamed together. We hosted a number of Wednesday evening dinners, again, where we dreamed in a group looking at everything from our campus and buildings to our position as a valued institution in our valley. Those meetings and emails produced more than a hundred Big Dreams and Great Ideas for our present-future.

As summer turned to fall, we began using those dreams (that data) to construct a strategic plan that might serve us for the next five or so years—a plan that might serve as a road map to help us be more proactive, rather than only reactive (we want to be both!) Out of that strategic process we've begun work on making three specific dreams come true (creating a program connecting older members of our congregation with children in a grand/godparent role, serving Native and Latino youth through a $50K grant request in partnership with the Doug Coombs Foundation, and the development of a mentoring group for local mothers that launched just this week!)

As a part of our strategic process, the vestry and staff worked together on the last Saturday of October to distill four aspirational values that might guide and direct our work for the next few years.

They are:

1. We are committed to partnering with organizations, businesses, and institutions in our valley and beyond to bring about transformation and love, healing, hope, nurture and wellbeing.
2. Our outreach and formation deeply affects the wellbeing of the community of Jackson Hole and our near neighbors
3. We connect spiritual practice with the sacred space in our valley for those who live here, work here and visit here.
4. We offer formation through various kinds of worship designed to serve diverse communities in and surrounding Jackson Hole.

Over the course of winter and spring 2019, you can expect vestry, staff, and other leaders at St. John's to begin to take the first steps toward making these values a reality for our church. This work will help us serve this valley and beyond more widely while also leaning on our history and past service, skills and passion. As a side note to this work, I want to share with you that our process for gathering dreams and creating strategy grabbed the attention of many other Episcopal Churches (partially due to the fact that many of you are members of more than one Episcopal Church, as you call more than one place home.) I have received many requests from clergy and vestry around the country to narrate just what we've done and where we think we're going. You should know, you (St. John's) are leading the way.

Advent

As fall turned to winter, we launched an Advent campaign seeking to develop a spiritual practice of mindfulness or helping ourselves be "present to the present moment." The practice settles our spirits and helps us find our place in God's Kingdom as partners to the love-spreading work Jesus so perfectly embodied. I'm happy to say it's hard to visit a grocery store in Jackson these days and NOT see several zipper pulls moving up and down the aisles and around the produce. People are asking, "what's the word "present" about?" It was wonderful to have this grounding spiritual practice in our community during a very busy time of the year when many of us feel pulled in so many directions.

Conversations

Over the course of the fall and winter our St. John's community began partnering with other leaders in our community to host two important conversations—a Conversation for Men in response to #MeToo, gender based violence prevention and gender equity in our valley and a Conversation on Race in partnership with the ELCA and Presbyterian Churches and the Teton County Library. It's wonderful to see our church at the center of these emerging conversations, and I look forward to seeing those develop in the coming year. They align perfectly with more than one of those aspirational values we dreamed up this summer!

Stewardship and Finance

This is one of those areas where we didn't enjoy the wild success of the prior two years. I feel as though I should bear the majority of the burden of failure in this regard. Over the course of the summer, our Stewardship Committee responded to many requests for us to have a Stewardship Campaign with less pressure than the preceding few years. Against, my better judgment, that's what we did. We had a shorter less pressured campaign.

I've come to believe that our late summer/early fall stewardship campaign serves as a mid-year reminder for us to finish the year strong in giving. Now I should be clear, our failure here is measured. We were still able to meet our expenses, and we were still able to serve as the generous church our community knows us to be. We still grew in our giving enjoying a 2.4% increase over last year, which at the time was our highest year ever. But, I believe reviving a more robust stewardship process will help us feel good at year's end, help us to continue to expand our mission and support of the community and beyond, and give us the resource to expand our love-spreading footprint.

Consensus and Coming Together

Though less concrete and certainly more difficult, an area I would like to see us enjoy increased success is in building consensus and bringing the community together. I feel like we're living in an age of marked division. I would love to see the Church's reconciling mission be put to work more fervently in our community of Jackson Hole. I would love if we could be a model for the rest of the church and country for what it looks like to live civilly with differing opinions and beliefs while supporting one another and coming together to respond to the needs of those most vulnerable in our community. We have a good track record here with Civility, Compassion and Love, and I would love to see that revitalized in this divided age.

Summary

Our successes are many and our failings are few. We have clear vision, excellent leadership in staff, vestry and congregation. We have momentum and passion fueling our mission. We have the God of Love as our partner here in Jackson and beyond. As Paul writes to the Church in Rome, "if God is for us, who can be against us?" God IS for us! And, you are a church who believes it, and acts as if you believe it! Keep up the strong love work. Make it deeper and wider in 2019.

Love,
Jimmy

ASSOCIATE RECTOR REPORT

As we dreamed together about the future of St. John's last year, we heard a strong desire expressed for new programs of Adult Formation, especially for study of the Bible.

So, in 2018 we offered two courses of Adult Formation. On four Monday nights in August a group of about 20 inquiring people got together in Hansen Hall to dream with the Evangelist Mark, and again in October to consider Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. We looked at both texts through historic and hermeneutical lens, with the hope of finding some inspiration and meaning for us, here in our lives. I think we found some, and we plan on keeping the quest alive, in 2019 and beyond. Stay tuned for more fun, instructive classes as Christie Laughery and I have some ideas. And if you're wondering what "hermeneutical" means, come to the next session!

One of the top news stories last summer was the Roosevelt Fire in the Bondurant area. Over 61,000 acres of forest burned and 55 homes were lost. We opened The Chapel of St. Hubert the Hunter to firefighters and people displaced by the fire, and the grounds of the chapel were used by area groups to help coordinate relief efforts. St. John's parishioners were generous, as usual, donating over $5,000 to help those affected by the fire.

2018 was a year of dreams and action here. I'm in awe of the movement of the Spirit in and through you, the people of St. John's, and I'm honored to be a part of this dynamic church. Keep up the good work!

Peace,
Brian

SENIOR WARDEN REPORT

2018 has been another amazing year! Small group dinners added connections among us during Lent, dreaming through the summer helped define our dreams, and being present through the Advent and Christmas season helped ground us.

One of the highlights of my year was traveling to Cuba to visit our friends in Favorito. This was my second visit and it is amazing to see how connected they are to each other, their community and St. John's! We are friends with them on Facebook and can even ring them on the phone. This is a huge change since I was there 5 years ago. I am excited and hopeful that because of our great relationship we will be able to help them navigate their changing world.

We have worked closely with Habitat for Humanity and had the opportunity to see our dream of providing a home for a family come true. Knowing that we provided over 800 hours of sweat equity with money for the home confirms that we at St. John's are the definition of partner.

Early this fall I went on a week-long hiking trip into the Winds with the staff. Seeing everyone work together on anything from reading maps, setting up camp and basic first aid (blister-care) confirmed what a great team we have at St. John's. I am incredibly thankful for our staff. They are a thoughtful, creative, hard-working group. Please remember to thank them for all they do!

I feel blessed to be working for you as part of the vestry.

Respectfully,
Kathy

- Chapel of the Transfiguration Fund
- The Mission Fund
- The Facilities Fund
- The Staff Housing Fund
- The Music Fund

- Ken Asel Ministerial Development
- The Heritage Fund
- General Reserve

The Endowments are held in trust and managed by five trustees: John Willott, Chair, Dan Land, Vice Chair, Chad Driewer, Secretary, Tricia Overdyke and John Goettler.

The five Trustees are elected for 3-year terms. Chad Driewer's term expires January 2019. John Willott and Dan Land's terms expire January 2020, and Tricia Overdyke and John Goettler's terms expire in 2021. Chad is willing to serve another three-year term and the Committee recommends his election.

The last quarter of 2018 was tough, our funds loss was -7.7% for the year. During the year we contributed money to buy employee housing. We now have a part of three housing units in which the Church has invested $880,000. Overall the Endowment Funds shrank from $2,202,574 (YE2017) to $2,076,997 a loss of -5.5%.

Contributions continue to flow into the Endowment funds during 2018. The Chapel of the Transfiguration Fund received $3,508. The Music Fund received $538. The table shows the assets in each of the endowment funds.

CHAPEL OF ST. HUBERT THE HUNTER

We opened The Chapel of St. Hubert the Hunter, a mission of St. John's Church, on June 3rd, and conducted services every Sunday through September 9th. Brian, Mary Erickson, and Jami Anderson celebrated a total of seven Holy Eucharists and a team of St. John's lay leaders, Lynne Matthews and Susan Erickson, led six Morning Prayer services. The Rev. Jami Anderson led our Blessing of the Animals service and the Rev. Randy Belton celebrated the Holy Eucharist on Christmas Eve.

As in years past, the chapel was well used by the Bondurant Community Club, who host a variety of annual events including the Bondurant BBQ and Heritage Days Sale. The first annual community barbecue was held on August 3, 1941, to celebrate the church completion. Since then, the event has been held every summer, always on the last Sunday in June, and 2018 marked the 77th annual event! Cooked are two full beef in a brick-lined BBQ pit for up to 20 hours. It's a relaxing day of wonderful food, fine music, and fun activities for children. Heritage Days is held every year on the second Saturday in August at the church and library grounds. The event features a community-wide rummage sale, raffle, bake sale, cookout, and book sale.

BROWSE 'N BUY

Reflecting on our work at Browse 'N Buy in 2018, I believe we made a positive and increased presence in the community. We expanded our existing programs resulting in additional support for those in need of a little help. The Browse 'N Buy staff was engaged with the successfulness of our sales floor, quality of product merchandised, recycling efforts, community outreach and more. We continued our green effort by being a sponsor in the annual Reuse Resource Guide that is distributed throughout the valley. Our voucher program of $6,500 was distributed to 10 nonprofits with the biggest return of vouchers to date. This is a program where a person receives a voucher in increments of $20 from a nonprofit to redeem at the Browse. Nearly each nonprofit handed out the full amount given to them with several requesting more! Our recycling of books and metals doubled versus 2017. We increased our textile recycling by nearly three tons that adds up to approximately 125 tons (250,000 pounds) of textiles diverted from the landfill.

Although we did not have a specific project like the instrument and bike drives of 2017, we were more deliberate on a daily basis in a much more intimate scope. We continue to fund the annual community dinner that is served at Jackson Elementary. We collected and delivered to each of the elementary schools Big 5 product that kept a lot of kiddos warm this winter. At the high school level, we funded the housing cost for the Model United Nations Club trip to Balbao, Spain, to partake in a high-level discussion about pertinent world issues through a simulation of the United Nations with other teens around the globe. Their trip is the third week of January this year.

Financially, all I can say is mission accomplished. We exceeded our budgeted sales and net goals that resulted in the best results in Browse history. We met and exceeded our vestry commitment. One thing to keep in mind is the staffing challenges in Jackson. A portion of the net was in unused payroll budget.

I believe that 2019 promises to be another love-spreading year through great product, pricing and community outreach.

BRIGHT BEGINNINGS EPISCOPAL PRESCHOOL

Bright Beginnings Episcopal Preschool celebrated our 6th birthday this June and continues to be a wonderful place to learn, explore, grow and thrive. We are blessed with amazing families, including nine parishioners, and incredible teachers, four of whom are parishioners. We have begun to develop the Grand Godparent Volunteer Program, encouraging volunteers to forge nurturing relationships with our preschoolers. With enrollment at full capacity and the support of the parish, Bright Beginnings is a fantastic place to be a preschooler.

The philosophy of Bright Beginnings is that the well-being of the child comes first. Our mission and that philosophy are incorporated throughout our school goals. We are a preschool that provides children of all races, creeds and ethnic backgrounds with a stimulating learning environment to assist children in achieving their highest potential.

BUILDINGS & GROUNDS

The Building and Grounds Committee headed by Will Davenport, and our Sexton, Tim Schwarz oversaw the general maintenance of all buildings on our town campus as well as The Chapel of the Transfiguration in Grand Teton National Park.

In addition to ongoing maintenance projects, in the spring we were able to replace the concrete stairs leading up to the main church building in town. As the weather warmed in summer, the historic chapel in town as well as St. John's House (the administration building) received a fresh coat of paint. We replaced two large trees in front of Bright Beginnings Episcopal Preschool that were beginning to lean toward the building. We started what will be an ongoing project of cleaning and beautifying our plant and flower beds around the campus. At St. John's, we value individual expression, natural beauty and the adventurous spirit that defines both the people and this place in the world.

FORMATION

Adult Formation:

- The Care of the Soul Retreat in January was popular with over 75 people in attendance.
- We enjoyed Stone Soup dinners during Lent and Dreaming dinners in summer.
- The Poetry and Spiritual Practice group with the Rev. Suzanne Harris was at full capacity during meetings in the summer.
- The Annual Women's Retreat at Teton Springs in Victor, ID was well attended with Mary Erickson, Suzanne Harris and Amy DiSanto leading sessions.
- GALs (Gathering All Ladies) meets each month on the first Thursday.
- The Men's Breakfast Group meets each Thursday.
- St. John's Outdoors provided an opportunity for parishioners to hike, bike, camp, golf, ski and play. In addition, we traveled into the Wind River Range for a nearly 40-mile backpacking adventure.
- We partnered with Backcountry Zero to bring you What's in your Pack training. We offered a course in Avalanche Awareness, and 2-day Wilderness First Aid course prepped many of us for life in the wild.
- We hosted community conversations about Gender Based Violence in partnership with the Community Safety Network including "The Manel" conversations, "A Safe Place to See, Speak and Share" with Jeff Bucholz, "Peak Performance & Self Compassion for Teens", and a discussion of Sarah Ross's article.
- Brian and Christie led a group in August to dream with the Evangelist Mark, and again in October to consider Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians.
- We hosted a Conversation on Race in partnership with the ELCA and Presbyterian Churches at the Teton County Library.

EVANGELISM

The Evangelism Committee helped organize the small group table fellowship dinners in 2018. During Lent, weekly Wednesday night fellowship dinners were held in Hansen Hall to draw our congregation closer together and prepare our hearts for the celebration of Christ's resurrection. The Coming to Dinner small group events created more intimate groups hosted within homes. We received over 140 participants and were able to group individuals and couples into crowds who were not well known to each other. On consecutive Sundays in March, 8-12 people gathered together into gracious hosts' homes to break bread and grow in their relationships within our church community. Childcare was provided. These dinners were a success and some groups chose to plan more dinners together.

Each Sunday, when we welcome guests to our congregation, mementos are handed out as a welcome gift. In years past, bookmarks (designed and assembled by our committee member, Kimberly Mullikin) were given. In 2019, we're giving custom shopping bags with the St. John's logo. We have already given a few as gifts for the Christmas morning service. Attached to the tote is a postcard, that showcases stunning photo of our campus or the Chapel of Transfiguration and include contact information and service times.

We hosted a coffee hour quarterly to raise awareness of opportunities within our church and events planned for the future. We continue to use the Invite Welcome Connect model (a ministry of relational evangelism and congregational empowerment for genuine connection for inviting the faith journeys and stories of everyone).

PARISH LIFE

We have 3 dedicated people who bake fresh communion bread each Sunday. We also have had youth bake bread with the help of Ed Schmitt.

The Flower Team is open to anyone who loves to work with flowers. This means coordinating sign-ups for Sunday services, helping to make arrangements for the church or chapel and assisting with the ordering and decorating of the Christmas poinsettias and Easter lilies. In 2018, we hosted a flower arranging tutorial with Emily of Lily + Co. and the GALs group.

We have a dedicated group of volunteers involved in the Library Snack program who purchase, prepare and deliver snacks each week to the Teton County Library. Snacks are served each week day with a total of 400 snacks per week. We receive food from the Jackson Cupboard, Hole Food Rescue and the Food Bank of the Rockies.

The Kitchen Guild provides meals to parishioners in need and is in charge of the 2nd Sunday potlucks, funeral receptions, and other events in the kitchen.

In 2018, we were able to connect on a deeper level in a variety of ways. Some of these include the Stone Soup dinners and small group table fellowship in Lent. We hosted World Day of Prayer at our church with a luncheon following. The Dreaming dinners in the summer were a great way to share ideas and get to better know your fellow parishioners. We started a weekly Women's Luncheon (Noon at E-leaven) for those wanting to connect each week. The Bike & Build group stayed at our facility this summer and provided the with a meal and fellowship.

PASTORAL CARE

The Pastoral Care Committee is comprised of representatives from teams including HELP, Eucharistic Visitors and Healing Ministry.

HELP (Hello Ever-loving Presence)

We gather once a month to discuss pastoral needs in the parish and provide short-term care for those requiring extra support. We have mowed the lawn for a parishioner recovering from surgery, provided assistance in moving a choir member from one home to another, stocked the refrigerator after the death of a loved one and delivered countless meals. These seemingly simple tasks can be healing balm when given freely and with love.

Eucharistic Visitors

We offer Holy Communion and a visit to those in the hospital or at home. Whether you're recovering from surgery, at home with a new baby or can't make it to church, a member of our team will bring church to you. We also visit Legacy Lodge once a month for tea, cake and communion.

Healing Ministry

During the 10:00 a.m. Sunday service, a member of our healing team is available as a companion in prayer. All petitions, whether healing or thanksgiving are welcome. The Healing Ministry Team has also provided Healing Services to those with ongoing medical conditions or at the end of life.

MUSIC

It has brought me great joy to serve as music director at St. John's since September. My favorite aspect of this role is thoughtfully selecting the hymns, choral anthem, and instrumental music that will best complement the liturgy for each week. There is so much wonderful music, and it has been a pleasure to bring some new choral, instrumental, and hymn selections to the services!

I would like to thank the choir for their faithfulness singing each week. We have had several new choir members this fall, and I welcome any other singers who might want to join our group. We rehearse from 5:30-6:30 p.m. on Wednesdays and then warm up each Sunday morning from 9:15-9:45 a.m. Lessons and Carols was our big choral event this year. For that Sunday, we had a choir of 20 voices to sing the good news of Christ's birth.

Kirsten Farney continues to provide excellent support as my music assistant. It is always moving when she expresses her faith and love for others in a solo with such power and poise. Kirsten also did a great job organizing the children's choir, ensemble, duets, and solos for our Christmas Eve children's service.

Finally, I would like to thank Jimmy and all the other staff at St. John's, who have been super helpful as I have transitioned into my new responsibilities. You all have answered many questions and given me much support, along with the freedom to explore and to just be me. Thank you.

Looking forward to another year of joyful, heartfelt music!

— David Wagner
